

College: ALadib

Name of Student: Mohammed Qasim Mohammed Name of Supervisor:
Dr.Prof. Amer Abd- Al-Mohsen Al-Saad

Dept.: Arabic

Title:

Conversational Implicature in the Speech of Imam Hussein Procession

Abstract:

Abstract Dialogue implication in the speeches of Imam Hussein procession It's a study of the motivations behind the speech or the usage of the speech 'after the analysis of the oration progression aims 'this concept arrises in the sayings of "Ahlulbayt in such a fabulous way 'because their sayings are greater than any other sayings 'for including implication 'intention and expression values in their apparent speech. According to what is mentioned above 'this master thesis is addressed "Dialogue implication in the speeches of Imam Husseini procession." To make the reader aware of the points of those outstanding speeches 'and to point to the euphemism immanence of linguistic equipping through the quality and quantity to put behavioral effect on the reader from whatever background as long as the impact carried by the oratorical product 'for that I was interested in studying Imam Husseini's procession speeches 'depending on methods of deliberation approach to all Imams 'masters and mistresses of Ahlulbayt " Researcher attempt to count all dialogues and speeches in deferent stations of the procession since the early starting point of Imam Husseini procession passing through trip road stations and captivity ending with the return of captives to Al-Madina 'without being restricted to one speech 'and the attempt to correspond between speeches and events that explaining these speeches outside structure building 'it's an attempt to reach their goals or in fact to try to reach them 'this matter reveal to the reader the oppression of Ahlulbayt (peace be upon them) And it states aims 'motives and justifications of their speeches by using a new approach in view of lingual studies which is an deliberative analysis method which absorbs the procession speeches from different angles (contextually and in place) in an attempt to reach it goals and aims in an applied process full of examples and evidences.