Title of Thesis:

Iraq during the Reign of the Ottoman Governor Muhammad Namiq Basha (1862 – 1868)

Abstract:

Our academic institutions and studies have shown clear-cut interest in studying the modern history of Iraq during the direct Ottoman rule of Iraq (1831-1914). This study is of an introduction, four chapters and a conclusion. The first chapter is devoted to the end of the rule of the rulers Mamalik in Iraq, the return of the Ottoman rule to Iraq 1831-1862. As to the second chapter, it has highlighted the (political and military conditions in Iraq during the reign of Namiq Basha 1862 - 1868) also has revealed the life of Namiq Basha. While the third chapter entitled "The economic Situation in Iraq during the Reign of Namiq Basha 1862-1868 is well discussed. The fourth chapter, entitled "Social and Urban Conditions and Foreign Influence in Iraq during the Period of Namiq Basha 1862-1868 has studied the nature of Iraqi society ,the social structure, the status of women , cultural conditions , education and health status during the period of Muhammmad Namiq Basha."
