

College: Arts

Name of student: Amged Cheachan Yousi Name of supervisor: Khalil Khalef Bashir

Dept.: Arabic language

Title:

Supplication in Nahj Albalaga Its Patterns and Implications

Abstract:

The letter summarizes the study of the linguistic structure of the text of du'aa 'in the approach of al-Balajah and its significance in many aspects, including the study of the du'aa' in both its nominal and actual form, its interpretation and the revelation of the types of du'aa 'which were represented by the call and the command and the prohibitions. Knowledge of the secrets of the language and its contents. The study also shows the relationship between the du'aa 'as a linguistic structure and a spiritual connection between the individual and his creator in a very meticulous manner created by Imam (peace be upon him) and expressed in different ways.