

College: Arts

Name the student: Israa abd Al-kareem Taher

Dept: History

Name the supervisor: Dr.Mishal Mefreh Dhaher

TITLE OF THESIS

The French Campaign Against Tsarist Russia 1809 – 1812

Abstract of thesis

The revolution that took place in France in the year 1789 was not an event that influenced France alone, in fact it crossed the borders to include the whole world , the reactions of the European countries towards the new revolution varied , Russia They split into two parties : the Russian people supported the Revolution and found out that it was a way to get rid of the absolute monarchy , On the other hand the Russian Government was apparent from the nature of Empress Catherine the Second, 1762-1796, who fought all that related to the Revolution and dismissed the French that were settling in her country , the two countries continued in their correspondences that led, at last, to Napoleon's Campaign against Russia on the 23rd of June, 1812 .
