

College: Education for Women Students Name: Saba Ali Abdul Al-Hussein

Dept.: History Supervisors Name: Assist. Prof. Kifayia Tarish Al-Ali

Specialization: Islamic history

Title of Thesis:

The chastity and the veil in the three monotheistic religions and Arabic sources to the end of the Umayyad dynasty 132AH/ 749BC

Abstract:

The study of chastity and the veil, and included in the functions of the important things that will preserve the community of the phenomena of pornography and the spread of immorality in it, and what was the issue of chastity and decency and commitment to the veil of things confirmed by the General heavenly Islamic religion religions in particular. Has been our history concert and record a variety of situations that have to do with this topic, and the form of chastity and the veil detailed important in history, whether it was in the past of Islam religions or the Islamic religion as the promise of the important things that would preserve the integrity of the community, where by maintaining them is to build true community and maintaining the values and principles that came out of the three monotheistic religions. This had to be a study of the historical significance.